

Classic Canada & New England | 10 DAYS

Eastern America and the shores of French Canada

These are two of North America's greatest cities — diverse New York, and French-influenced Québec City. They bookend a truly exceptional itinerary, with highlights in both New England and Canada that are simply legendary. Visit historic Boston, quaint Sydney, and take in all the breathtaking beauty in the Bay of Fundy and along the Saguenay River. Onboard, enjoy all the magnificent Crown Princess® has to offer — from incredible dining and exciting musical productions to Las Vegas-style casinos or the rejuvenating Lotus Spa®

CRUISE HIGHLIGHTS

BOSTON

Experience the history of this city as you walk the Freedom Trail, and see colonial-era treasures like Bunker Hill Pavilion, Paul Revere's House and the Old North Church. Or, head for the Faneuil Hall Marketplace for terrific shopping, dining and sightseeing.

HALIFAX

The capital of Nova Scotia, Halifax has a picturesque harbor and some of Canada's friendliest people. Make sure to save some time to take the short trip to Peggy's Cove to see one of the world's most recognizable lighthouses.

QUÉBEC CITY

From the historic Château Frontenac lording over the St. Lawrence River, to cobble streets like Rue St. Louis, this city brings a taste of France to the New World. Find a good café, order a glass of wine, and soak it all in.
